Le Golf National has been the host venue for the French Open since 1991. Designed by Hubert Chesneau and Robert Von Hagge, it is a key step in the European Tour calendar - Rolex Series. The golf course combines the traditional feel of a links with the modern features of target golf, slick greens, vast undulating fairways with innumerable links-style bunkers.

The Albatros course is one of the finest golf courses in Europe where, in 2018, the final act of the Ryder Cup drama will be played. Come to face the Albatros course for its re-opening and feel a bit of the Ryder Cup experience right after golf legends have played.
